January 22, 2017-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
Briar Cliff University Collection

On Briar Cliff Sunday, January 28th and 29th, there will be a special offering to assist with scholarships for Briar Cliff students. Currently, 98% of Briar Cliff students depend on scholarship aid to make it possible for them to attend the only Catholic University in the Diocese of Sioux City. Please help these young members of our parishes by contributing to the Briar Cliff Sunday offering.

Ecumenical Service – This Sunday at 2 PM

There will be city-wide ecumenical Prayer Service for Christian Unity this Sunday (January 22nd) at 2:00 pm. A reception will follow in the parish center. Please join us in an effort to help realize Christ's prayer the night before He died, "Father,...that they may all be one" (Jn. 17, 21).

Food, Family and Fellowship

Chicken Milanese

Ingredients

2 boneless, skinless chicken breasts; 1/4 cup whole milk; 3 large eggs; 1/2 cup all-purpose flour; Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper; 1 cup seasoned breadcrumbs; 2 tablespoons butter; 2 tablespoons olive oil; Arugula, for serving; Balsamic vinegar, for drizzling; 1/2 cup fresh Parmesan shavings; 1 lemon, cut wedges.

Directions

Place your palm flat against the top of each chicken breast and carefully slice each piece in half horizontally; you'll be left with 4 thinner chicken breast pieces. Place each chicken cutlet between 2 sheets of waxed paper and use the smooth side of a mallet (or a rolling pin) to pound them until they're very thin. If you think they're thin enough pound 'em a few more times! The thinner the better.

In a dish, whisk together the milk and eggs. Place the flour in another dish and mix in some salt and pepper. Place the breadcrumbs in a third dish. Set the 3 dishes aside.

Salt and pepper both sides of the chicken pieces, then dredge them 1 at a time in the flour, then quickly dunk both sides in the egg mixture and then coat both sides in the breadcrumbs. Lay each piece on a plate until you're ready to cook them.

Heat 1 tablespoon butter and 1 tablespoon olive oil in a skillet over medium-low heat. When it's melted and hot, add 2 pieces of the breaded chicken and cook, flipping once, until the breading is golden brown and the chicken is cooked, 2 to 3 minutes per side; transfer the chicken to a clean plate. Add the other tablespoon of butter and oil to the skillet and cook the other 2 pieces of chicken.

To serve, place 1 piece of cooked chicken on each plate. Top generously with arugula. Sprinkle with a little kosher salt, drizzle with balsamic vinegar and sprinkle on some Parmesan shavings. Serve with a lemon wedge on the side.

Please join us this afternoon (Sunday, Jan. 22nd) at 2pm at Blessed Sacrament for a City-Wide Ecumenical Prayer Service for Christian Unity. Bishop Nickless and Bishop Rodger Prios of the Western Synod ELCA will be joining us. A reception will follow in the parish center.

THANK YOU for your generosity

On Behalf of the Community Action Agency of Siouxland, I would like to thank the Blessed Sacrament members for providing gifts for many of the less fortunate families we serve. It's a great help to have the gifts organized by families; our workers were able to get everything delivered. This year we were able to provide gifts to approximately 1,000 individuals.—Caroline

Sr. Phyllis Bruch Scholarship

Sr. Phyllis Bruch was the Principal of Blessed Sacrament School from 1989 to 1994. She cared deeply about students and Catholic education. Upon her death in 1994 a scholarship was started. Last year there were two students chosen so $1000.00 was divided equally.

In May the faculty and staff look at 8th graders who will be attending Heelan next year, who exhibit criteria such as; character, sense of responsibility, relationships with both staff & students, desire to learn and work hard, etc.
