Sunday November 13, 2016 The 33th Sunday in Ordinary Time
New Youth Group Forming

We've had our 1st meeting!!! We had a great time and pizza was enjoyed by all. Our next meeting is November 20th at noon. We will again meet in the upper room of the old convent (above Angel House). All students from grades 9-12 are invited. Whether you are a parishioner or not or if you are not Catholic.

Knights of Columbus Breakfast This Sunday

The Knights are having one of their delicious breakfasts this Sunday (October 9th) after all the Sunday Masses (8 a.m. to noon). Menu includes scrambled eggs, sausage, hash browns, pancakes, biscuits and gravy, coffee, juice and milk. Please join us for this great and delicious event.

I'm On Vacation!!!

I am currently in Rome and I will be returning late on Thursday, Nov. 17th. Please pray that we have a safe and fun-filled trip. I will be praying for all of you. The always kind Fr. Roger Linnan will be filling in for me while I am away.

2nd In-Pew Solicitation for DAA

There will be a 2nd In-Pew Solicitation for the DAA next weekend (Nov. 19th-20th). If you have not already donated, there will be cards in the pews for you to fill out. If you have donated, I and Bishop Nickless thank you.

Children's Liturgy Helpers Needed

Abortion Retreat – Help Needed

Plans are being made for a Rachel's Vineyard retreat in Sioux City. The retreat is for women who are dealing with the effects of having had an abortion. Annual International Fair Trade Craft Sale

Please join us next weekend (Nov. 19 & 20) for our parish's annual International Fair Trade craft sale. Come to the parish center and see items such as miniature olive wood nativities made in the Holy Land, baskets from Bangladesh, crosses from India and Vietnam, angels from Kenya and Indonesia, our ever popular fair trade coffees, teas and chocolates and much more. We will also have some items made at Mary Treglia Community House by women who are new to the U.S.. We encourage you to come even if you don't buy, to see the creativity of our sisters and brothers around the world in their interpretation of things and their use of local materials. Since this is fair trade, the artisans and growers have already been paid a fair price for their work and in most cases, they receive a "social premium" from the fair trade organization they deal with. For more information on fair trade, go to www.crsfairtrade.org. Sponsored by Blessed Sacrament Parish Peace and Justice Committee.

PRE-BAPTISM CLASS

Thank You

As the season of giving thanks approaches, we feel it is appropriate for us to express our gratitude to the numerous people that have shared their love and support. We are most grateful to the organizing committee of the Boggs Brigade. Your dedication and effort resulted in an amazing experience. Thank you to the St. Michael Knights of Columbus for their hard work with the pancake and omelet breakfast. The food was delicious and your tireless efforts were noted. Many thanks go to the contributors to the Go Fund Me campaign. We want to acknowledge all of those who supported the silent auction by donating the baskets or making a purchase. We are appreciative of those who in any way made the raffle successful. Thank you to the bakers of the pies and those who purchased them. We are grateful for the book sale donors and the readers who bought books. It was heartwarming to see how many children and adults participated in the eans day and wore the Boggs Brigade t-shirts. The purple bracelets that were purchased have helped raise awareness. The anonymous gifts, words of encouragement, and the spiritual support we have received has overwhelmed us. May God bless you and your family.

Sincerely, Mike, Pat, & Ryan Boggs
